

RACHEL'S HOME COUNTRY

 PEACE
Home
203

Rachel voted for Peace Country as their Home Country by expressing their love of this land with exceptionally high votes totaling 203. They live their life by being remarkably efficient and easygoing while staying true to their Peace culture. Because their votes for Peace Country are so high, Rachel is sending everyone a message that an extraordinary level of peace, harmony and cooperation is extremely important to them. Rachel finds it extremely difficult to work without a calm and tranquil environment. If they've got to get something done that involves other people, they make sure that everyone will get along. This makes them quite the mediator between people from feuding countries. Since they are such a dedicated citizen of Peace Country, Rachel is able to find unique ways to put forth the utmost level of efficiency into everything they do. Staying calm and cooperative under all conditions is a high priority in Rachel's life. They work and relate very well with other people because they respect people, just the way they are. Rachel asks others to give them respect in return without question.

RACHEL'S ADOPTED COUNTRY

 PERFECT
Adopted
133

With 133 votes for their Adopted Country of Perfect, Rachel is a specialist in paying attention to detail, thinking deeply about issues that matter to them and staying on the "right" path. Rachel has a knack for diving into the details and analyzing multiple components to find the best possible approach. Friends have noticed that Rachel is one to continue to search for more ways to grow and improve. They have the core talents of the greatest artists, poets, musicians, engineers, and technicians.

RACHEL'S NATURE

Rachel is a Balancing person who voted highly for both the Soft and Hard traits and as a result brought them up to an intense level. The range between their Hard and Soft traits is only 8 votes. With a significant love for the Hard traits and also a substantial love for the Soft traits, Rachel is able to switch to whatever nature best fits the situation they're in at that time. For example, if Rachel is working with someone who has a stronger opinion than they do, they would then switch to their Softhearted ways of being patient and flexible. Given the same situation, Rachel could be dominant and take charge of a project if they are working with someone who isn't opinionated. Because Rachel is a Balancing person, they excel in social situations as well as in taking the lead and getting things done. For Rachel, people and their feelings can be a high priority one minute, but when they see that direction is needed, they can quickly change to their Hard nature and become strong willed, consistent and organized in order to focus on achieving results.

RACHEL'S TOP 5

1 EASY GOING

I accept what I can't change and change what I can.

Being Easygoing is all about being light and flexible with people. Because of this, Rachel's no problem to be around. Being Easygoing keeps them unruffled and tolerant. By being Easygoing they can take life as it comes and have a good time with many different kinds of people.

2 WATCH PEOPLE

I'm very mindful of the situation.

Rachel is keenly observant and notices little things about people that others overlook. It's very entertaining for them to draw conclusions about people just by viewing little segments of their lives. Through Watching People, they learn about how they can interact with people as well.

3 ECONOMICAL

Let's spend practically.

Being Economical allows Rachel to conserve their financial resources effectively. They want to save money wherever possible and know where every nickel is spent to guard against wastefulness. They have a talent for doing what is thrifty so you can be assured that your money is spent wisely.

4 FAITHFUL

I am loyal and will be there for you and work hard to help you to succeed.

Rachel is always there for certain people when they need them and they want them to be there for them. They want loyalty and trust from these close few. People they can really trust will bring them the most joy and satisfaction because they can relax and just be themselves with them.

5 GOOD LISTENER

I truly want to understand what you are saying.

Rachel is kind and thoughtful enough to want to hear what others have to say. With their Good Listening talents, they show interest in other people by carefully hearing them out and being attentive. Being a Good Listener is about being considerate with the people they like.
